Asterian Path Horoscopes

April 27 - May 10

If you were born April 27 - May 10th you were born under the star of Hades and are an Aries to the core!

Hades individuals are naturally attuned to what lies beneath the surface. They read between lines, feel what isn't said, and notice shifts long before anyone else catches on. There's a depth to them that can feel intense to others, not because they are overwhelming, but because they see too much to stay superficial. They are not here for small talk, they are here for truth, transformation, and understanding the hidden mechanics of life.

Life for a Hades-born person often involves cycles of release and renewal. They may experience endings earlier, deeper, or more frequently than others... but these endings are never random. Each one is a shedding, a refining, a necessary clearing that shapes them into someone incredibly resilient and self-aware. Where others might break, Hades individuals rebuild. And they rebuild stronger every time.

There is also a natural magnetism to them. People may not always understand them, but they feel drawn to them. There's something powerful about someone who is not afraid of depth, of emotion, of truth. Hades energy carries a quiet authority, the kind that doesn't demand attention but commands it anyway.

At their highest expression, a Hades-born person becomes a guide through transformation, not just for themselves, but for others. They understand loss, change, and rebirth in a way that allows them to help others navigate it too. They are the ones who can sit in the dark with someone and not try to fix it, but understand it, and that is a rare kind of strength.

At their lowest expression, they can become guarded, withdrawn, or overly attached to control. The challenge is learning that not everything needs to be held so tightly. True power for Hades is not in controlling the process, it's in trusting it.

To be born under Hades is to walk a path of depth, transformation, and quiet strength. It is not always the easiest path... but it is one of the most powerful

1. Dioscuri (Dee-O-Skoori)

Date of birth: April 14- April 27

(0.00 degrees ARIES - 13.20 degrees ARIES)

Dioscuri

Dioscuri your path to fortune is fast, instinctive, and full of momentum. This is what happens when you shows up and move, not when you wait, and certainly not when you overthink it. You have to act!

Opportunities may come quickly, sometimes unexpectedly. A chance, an opening or moment where you have to decide on the spot. And when you do? Things start to accelerate. Dioscuri, your actions bring rewards, your hesitation does not.

There's a strong sense of confidence building here. You trust yourself more, you respond faster, and you're less likely to get stuck in indecision. That alone can create opportunities that others miss simply because they waited too long.

Financially or materially, gains can come through quick decisions, seizing opportunities, or simply being in the right place at the right time because you showed up. Dioscuri doesn't overcomplicate things, it moves.

There's also a playful, adventurous energy here. The fortune that is coming to you feels exciting. Like life is inviting you to participate instead of observe.

By the end of this cycle, you'll realize your fortune wasn't just something that happened to you... it was something you have earned. Good for you!

2. Hades (Hay-Deez)

Date of birth: April 28- May 11

(13.20 degrees Aries - 26.40 degrees Aries)

Hades

Hades, this is a time where things come to you that may confuse you at first, The Gods are blessing you but it may not look like a blessing at first. Something shifts, something ends, something moves... and your first reaction might be, "well that was inconvenient." Give it a minute Hades you may be pleasantly surprised.

What's actually happening is a deep recalibration in your favor. Situations that were draining your energy or quietly blocking your growth are being removed or reshaped. What comes in its place, you get stability, strength, and opportunities that actually match who you are now, not who you used to be.

Financially and materially, this can be a slow but steady rise. Not chaotic moves, but smart ones. Strategic ones. The kind that build over time and don't disappear overnight. You may find yourself making better decisions, attracting more reliable support, or finally seeing progress where things once felt stuck.

Emotionally, there's a quiet empowerment happening. You're less reactive, less attached to what doesn't serve you, and more aware of your own value. Hades, this is teaching you that your power isn't loud, it's controlled. And right now, it's working for you.

By the end of this cycle, you'll realize something important: what you thought you lost was actually space being cleared for something better. Remember Hades, space doesn't get cleared unless the plans is to fill it.

3. Vesta (Vest-A)

Date of birth: May 12 - May 24

(26.40 degrees Aries - 10.00 degrees Taurus)

Vesta

Your gifts right now are coming from focus so sharp it could cut glass. Vesta, at this time you are not scattering your energy, you are channeling it. Suddenly, things that once felt overwhelming are becoming manageable, organized, and dare I say... efficient. Who are you and what have you done with the chaos?

This is a powerful time for building something real. Whether it's your career, finances, or a personal goal, your ability to commit and stay consistent is paying off. You're not chasing every shiny opportunity, you're choosing the right ones. That discernment is where your wealth begins.

Financial growth here may come through discipline. Budgeting that actually works. Plans that you follow through on. Decisions that future-you will want to send a thank-you note for. This is not a flashy shift, but it's the kind that creates long-term security instead of short-term excitement.

There's also a purification happening here, you are cutting out distractions, draining habits, or anything that's been quietly sapping your energy. Vesta, this is basically your inner minimalist right now, clearing space so your resources can flow where they actually matter.

By the end of this cycle, you won't just feel more abundant, you'll feel in control of your abundance. That is a who new level of power.

4. Pasiphae (Pass-If-Phay)

Date of birth: May 25-June 7

(10.00 degrees Taurus - 23.20 Taurus)

Pasiphae

Pasiphae, right now you may be feeling some resistance. This may be subtle, internal, and just a little bit annoying. Pasiphae, this is not trying to throw obvious problems at you, it creates situations where your perception is tested. Things may not be exactly what they seem, and your first instinct might not always be the most reliable one.

You could find yourself overthinking, second-guessing, or getting caught in emotional loops that feel very real but aren't entirely grounded. It's like your mind has opened ten tabs at once and refuses to close any of them. The challenge here is not to give value to every thought that shows up like it owns the place.

Relationships may also feel a little confusing. You may be getting mixed signals, unclear intentions, or situations where you're trying to "figure someone out" instead of just observing them. Pasiphae, this cycle is teaching you discernment, not paranoia. There's a difference, and learning it will save you a lot of energy.

On the material side, this is not the time for impulsive decisions. If something feels rushed, unclear, or too good to be true... pause. Let things reveal themselves. The issue is not a lack of opportunity, it's learning how to choose wisely.

By the end of this cycle, you'll come out sharper, more intuitive, and far less likely to get caught in illusions. Pasiphae, don't allow the confusion to throw you off your game, instead take it as an opportunity to learn how to see clearly.

5. Prometheus (Pro-Me-Thee-Us)

Date of birth: June 8 - June 21

(23.20 degrees Taurus - 6.40 Gemini)

Prometheus

Prometheus, right now you are being forced to think differently, this will help you not work harder, but work smarter. This cycle is handing you flashes of insight like lightning in a bottle, and your job is to actually use them instead of just saying, "huh, that's interesting," and moving on.

You may find solutions appearing out of nowhere. Problems that once felt stuck suddenly have openings. Ideas that felt too big or too risky before, now they feel possible and maybe even exciting. This is innovative energy, and it wants you to trust your own mind a little more than usual.

Financial or career gains can come from doing something unconventional. This is a time for a new approach, a new system, or even a bold decision that others might hesitate to make. Prometheus, this cycle is rewarding you because you are willing to step slightly outside the box... not burn it down entirely, just give it a healthy side-eye.

There's also a sense of independence here. You rely less on others' opinions and are more connected to your own vision, that shift alone can open doors that were previously closed simply because you were waiting for approval that was never coming.

By the end of this cycle, you'll realize your greatest asset wasn't luck, it was your ability to see differently and that is something no one can take from you.

6. Typhon (Tie-Fon)

Date of birth: June 22 - July 5

(6.40 degrees Gemini - 20.00 degrees Gemini)

Typhon

Typhon energy doesn't tap politely on the door, it storms in, flips the table, and asks why you were eating here in the first place. You may feel like this destructive energy is loud, fast, and—strangely—accurate. Anything built on shaky motives, old fear, or “this is fine, I guess” energy is getting audited.

Expect sudden changes that feel dramatic in the moment but reveal a sharp intelligence underneath. Plans may pivot, people may show their true colors, and situations that looked stable might prove... decorative. Is this annoying? Yes, but necessary. This cycle removes the illusion of stability so you can build the real thing.

Career and direction can feel like a plot twist. You might be pushed to act quicker, decide faster, or stop waiting for perfect conditions that were never going to arrive. This is the kind of pressure that turns hesitation into action. You won't have time to overthink—and that's the point.

Emotionally, there's a purge happening. Old anger, buried frustration, the “I'll deal with it later” pile—consider it opened. Let it move. Let it clear. Typhon's chaos is not there to break you; it's there to make sure nothing weak stays standing.

By the end of this cycle, what remains is solid, honest, and yours. Typhon doesn't leave debris. It leaves foundations.

7. Artemis (Art-Ta-Mis)

Date of birth: July 6- July 19

(20.00 degrees Gemini - 3.20 Cancer)

Artemis

Artemis, your success right now comes from precision, independence, and knowing exactly when to move. Don't chase wildly, take aim and hit your target. This is a period where your instincts are sharp, your decisions are cleaner, and your ability to cut through noise is almost surgical.

You may find yourself pulling away from distractions, people, or situations that dull your focus. Not in a dramatic "goodbye forever" way, but more like quietly closing tabs that no longer deserve your attention. Suddenly with fewer distractions, your progress speeds up in a way that surprises even you.

Career-wise, this is a powerful time for stepping into your own authority. You don't need a committee, a group chat, or five opinions before making a move. The more you trust yourself, the more doors open. Artemis, you are being rewarded with self-reliance, and are being handed the tools to lead your own path.

There's also a confidence building here that doesn't need validation. You're less concerned with being liked and more focused on being effective. Ironically, that's what earns you respect.

By the end of this cycle, your success won't feel accidental. It will feel earned, targeted, and entirely your own.

8. Zeus (Zoos)

Date of birth: July 20 - August 2

(3.20 degrees Cancer - 16.40 Cancer)

Zeus

Zeus, this cycle brings destruction, it doesn't ask for permission, it removes what has outlived its authority in your life. It could be a role, a belief, a structure, or even a version of yourself that you've been clinging to out of habit.

This can feel like a major reset around control, identity, or direction. Situations where you once felt powerful may shift, forcing you to redefine what real power actually is. If something has been built on ego, pressure, or external validation this cycle will strike it down without hesitation.

Career or life direction can go through a dramatic transformation. You may outgrow a position, lose interest in something you once pursued intensely, or be pushed into a new path that feels unfamiliar but ultimately more aligned. It's not comfortable, but it's corrective.

Emotionally, this is a humbling process that is happening. This is not meant to diminish you, but to strip away anything false so your true authority can emerge. This cycle doesn't destroy your power, it removes everything that was pretending to be it.

By the end of this cycle, you won't just be rebuilt, you'll be rebuilt on truth, and that kind of foundation doesn't crack.

9. Hydra (Hi-Drah)

Date of birth: (August 3 - August 16)

(16.40 degrees Cancer - 30.00 degrees Cancer)

Hydra

Your version of enjoyment right now is rich, tempting, and just a little bit “should I be doing this?” energy. Hydra, this cycle doesn’t do boring pleasure, it does intensity. The kind of enjoyment that pulls you in, wraps around your attention, and says, “stay a while.”

You may find yourself drawn to experiences that feel immersive. Deep conversations, emotional connections, or even situations that stir something inside you that you can’t quite explain. This isn’t a surface level fun, this is engaging, almost hypnotic enjoyment.

There’s also a strong pull toward desire. What you want feels louder, clearer, harder to ignore. Honestly, that’s not a bad thing... as long as you’re aware of where you’re investing your energy. Hydra, this cycle can blur the line between pleasure and attachment if you’re not paying attention.

Financially or materially, enjoyment may come through treating yourself, upgrading your environment, or allowing yourself experiences you’ve been holding back from. Just keep one foot grounded, we all know how you love a “worth it in the moment” decision that future-you may side-eye slightly.

At its core, this cycle is teaching you that enjoyment is not something to fear or suppress. It’s something to experience consciously. When you stay aware Hydra, this intensity becomes a pleasure... not a trap.

10. Persephone (Per-Sef-O-Nee)

Date of birth: August 17 - August 29

(0.00 degrees Leo - 13.20 degrees Leo)

Persephone

Your fortune right now feels like stepping into a story you didn't realize you were ready for. Persephone, this cycle doesn't hand out surface-level blessings, it will deliver transformative energy, the kind that changes you as soon as it arrives.

You may find opportunities emerging from places that once felt uncertain or even uncomfortable. Situations that previously felt like challenges now begin to open doors. It's as if something that once pulled you down is now lifting you up, that's the magic of this cycle. It is turning depth into advantage.

Emotionally and relationally, there can be powerful connections forming or strengthening. Bonds deepen, trust grows, and you begin to feel supported in ways that feel both grounding and meaningful. This is not fleeting luck, this is aligned connection.

Financially or materially, you may see gains come through transitions, a change, a shift, or even an ending could lead directly into something better. What once felt like a loss now reveals itself as a doorway.

At its core, Persephone, this is showing you that fortune often hides inside transformation and right now, you're being guided toward something that not only benefits you... but evolves you.

11. Bacchus (Ba-Cus)

Date of birth: August 30 - September 13

(13.20 degrees Leo - 26.40 Leo)

Bacchus

This is where the good energy turns into a celebration you didn't plan but absolutely deserve. Bacchus, this cycle is handing you moments of joy, connection, and opportunity that feel easy, natural, and honestly... a little magical.

You may notice doors opening through social interactions, friendships, or creative outlets, a casual conversation could turn into something meaningful, and a fun night out could lead to a new opportunity. This is "right place, right time" energy, and you don't have to force it. In fact, the more relaxed you are, the better things seem to flow.

There's also a boost in confidence here. You're more comfortable being seen, expressing yourself, and enjoying life without overthinking it. People are drawn to you right now, not just because of what you do, but because of how you make them feel when you are around, that's where your advantage lies.

Financially, this can bring great things through creativity, networking, or simply saying yes to the right opportunities. Just keep one eye on your spending, Bacchus, you do love a "treat yourself" moment, and while you deserve it, your future self would like a little balance.

At its core, this cycle is reminding you that joy is productive. That enjoyment is not a distraction, it's part of the reward. Sometimes, the best opportunities come when you're not trying so hard to chase them.

12. Hymenaeus (Hy-Ma-Nay-Ous)

Date of birth: September 14 - September 26

(26.40 Leo - 10.00 Virgo)

Hymenaeus

Hymenaeus, here comes all that prosperous energy wrapped in connection, charm, and a little bit of “how did that work out so perfectly?” energy. Hymenaeus, you thrive in partnership, and right now, the right people are showing up at the right time.

Opportunities may come through relationships, collaborations, or simply being aligned with people who get you. This is not the time to go it alone. There’s magic in teamwork right now, whether it’s business, love, or creative projects. Someone else holds a key that unlocks your next level.

Financially, this can bring gains through joint efforts. Shared ventures, client relationships, or even support from others that help you move forward faster than expected. It’s like the universe is saying, “you don’t have to do everything yourself, relax.”

There’s also an ease in communication, conversations flow, agreements come together smoothly, and things that once felt complicated start to simplify. Hymenaeus, this cycle removes friction and replaces it with harmony, and that harmony attracts success.

On a deeper level, you’re learning that prosperity is not just about what you have, it’s about who you’re aligned with. The right connections don’t just feel good, they build something and right now, you’re building something meaningful.

13. Sol (soul)

Date of birth: September 27 - October 13

(10.00 degrees Virgo - 23.20 degrees Virgo)

Sol

Sol, your obstacles are bold, visible, and impossible to ignore. This is the kind of energy that puts you on stage and says, “alright, show us who you really are.” No hiding, no shrinking, no pretending you don’t care when you absolutely do.

You may feel pressure around identity, confidence, or direction, you may have questions like “what am I actually doing?” or “is this really me?” could come up more strongly now. It’s not because you’re lost, it’s because you’re outgrowing an older version of yourself and the new one isn’t fully defined yet.

There can also be challenges with authority, recognition, or being seen. You might feel overlooked in moments where you want acknowledgment, or pushed into visibility when you’d rather stay low-key. Sol, this cycle has a way of flipping the script just to make sure your confidence isn’t dependent on external validation.

Career-wise, this could feel like a test of leadership and it is asking, are you owning your role, or waiting for permission? Are you standing in your power, or dimming it to keep things comfortable? These questions aren’t always fun, but they’re necessary.

The lesson here is powerful: your identity is not something you wait to receive, it’s something you claim and once you do, the obstacles start to look a lot more like stepping stones.

14. Vulcan (Vul-Can)

Date of birth: October 14- October 23

(23.20 degrees Virgo - 6.40 Libra)

Vulcan

If Prometheus energy gives you the idea, Vulcan energy gives you the hammer. Your gifts here are built, forged, and strengthened through effort that actually leads somewhere. Not busy work. Not spinning your wheels, real, tangible progress.

This is a powerful time for productivity. You may find yourself more focused, more determined, and oddly satisfied by getting things done. Tasks that once felt heavy now feel manageable, even rewarding. It's like your work ethic just got an upgrade and decided to show off a little.

Financial gains can come through consistency and skill. The more you refine what you do, the more valuable it becomes. This is not about shortcuts, it's about mastery and this cycle rewards mastery with results that last.

There may also be opportunities to fix, improve, or rebuild something. A project, a system, even a situation that once felt broken. Where others see problems, you're seeing potential and that ability to work through challenges instead of avoiding them becomes a major advantage.

The lesson here is simple but powerful: effort, when applied correctly, creates momentum. And right now, your momentum is leading you somewhere solid.

15. Favonius (Fav-O-Nuss)

Date of birth: October 24 - November 6

(6.40 degrees Libra - 20.00 Libra)

Favonius

Favonius, this cycle is destruction by wind—gentler at first, then suddenly rearranging your entire landscape like a very persuasive breeze that escalates into a full makeover. Things don't shatter here; they shift, drift, and relocate until you realize you're somewhere new.

You may feel restless, like your life needs fresh air. Conversations change direction, plans evolve, and opportunities come and go quickly. The challenge is not to cling to what's moving, if it's leaving, it's making space. If it's arriving, it's bringing momentum.

Relationships and communication are key zones of change. Words matter more than usual, and a single conversation can redirect a whole path. Be clear, be honest, and be willing to let misunderstandings dissolve instead of forcing them to stay intact out of habit.

On the material side, this can feel like instability at first—shifting priorities, changing plans—but it often leads to better alignment. You're being guided away from what doesn't flow and toward what actually does. It's less about control and more about navigation.

The lesson here is that flexibility is your superpower. When you move with the wind instead of against it, this cycle turns disruption into opportunity and change into a surprisingly elegant upgrade.

16. Dinus (Di-O-Noos)

Date of birth: November 7 - November 19

(20.00 degrees Libra - 3.20 degrees Scorpio)

Dinus

Dinus, this cycle brings success through bold movement, risk, and the willingness to go for it even when the outcome isn't guaranteed. This is not cautious energy. This is "I'll figure it out on the way" energy... and somehow, it works.

Opportunities may come fast and require quick decisions. Hesitation is not your friend here. The more you lean into action, the more momentum builds. It's like pushing a boulder downhill, once it starts moving, it doesn't stop easily.

There's also a strong entrepreneurial or leadership vibe here. You may feel the urge to start something, take control of a situation, or step into a role that requires confidence and initiative. Even if you don't feel 100% ready, Dinus, this cycle says move anyway.

Financial success can come through bold choices, taking calculated risks, or trusting your gut when something feels right. This is not reckless energy, it's courageous energy. There's a difference, and you'll feel it when you're aligned.

The lesson is success doesn't always wait for certainty. Sometimes it shows up for the person willing to act before they have all the answers.

17. Urania (Your-A-Nee-A)

Date of birth: November 20 - December 2

(3.20 degrees Scorpio - 16.40 degrees Scorpio)

Urania

Urania, this cycle is going to feel like a small storm, but don't underestimate it. This is the dismantling of your mental frameworks, your beliefs, your way of understanding the world. It's like someone went into your internal filing system and said, "we're reorganizing everything."

You may experience shifts in perspective that feel almost disorienting at first. Things you once believed strongly may no longer resonate. Ideas, goals, or even long-held plans can dissolve, leaving you in a space of "what now?"

I know this is confusing, but it does have a reason even if you don't see it right now. Just know this is expansion through release. Urania, this cycle clears outdated thinking so new insight can enter, it's like deleting old software so your system can actually run properly again.

There can also be a pull toward learning, exploring, or seeing things differently. You may question your path, your purpose, or the direction you've been heading. That questioning is the doorway to clarity, even if it doesn't feel like it right away.

This is not a literal death, it is the death of limitation. Old narratives, old mental loops, old definitions of what's possible, and what replaces them is a perspective that is wider, freer, and far more aligned with your growth.

18. Parca (Park-A)

Date of birth: December 3 - December 15

(16.40 degrees Scorpio - 30.00 degrees Scorpio)

Parca

Parca, this cycle brings in enjoyment that is quieter, more subtle, and laced with a sense of “this was meant to happen.” It’s the kind of pleasure that comes from timing, alignment, and moments that feel just right without needing to be loud about it.

You may notice things falling into place effortlessly. Plans working out, interactions flowing smoothly, or small moments that carry a surprising amount of meaning. It’s not about big dramatic highs, it’s about right timing and the satisfaction that comes with it.

There’s also an appreciation for simplicity here. Enjoyment might come from slowing down, being present, and actually noticing what’s already good in your life. Parca, this cycle reminds you that not everything has to be chased... some things are already yours.

Relationships can feel smoother during this time. Less friction, more understanding, and a sense that things are unfolding naturally instead of being forced. Conversations land better and connections feel easier.

On a deeper level, you’re learning to trust the flow of your life. That enjoyment doesn’t always come from doing more, sometimes it comes from allowing things to be.

Date of birth: December 16 - December 28

(0.00 degrees Sagittarius - 13.20 degrees Sagittarius)

Hecate

Hecate, this cycle your gifts are intuitive, mysterious, and almost eerie in its precision. This is the kind of luck that doesn't look loud, but feels uncannily right. You're being guided, whether you realize it or not.

You may notice your instincts becoming sharper. Decisions feel clearer, even when you don't have all the logical details, you just know and when you follow that knowing, things seem to fall into place with surprising ease.

Opportunities may appear at crossroads moments. Situations where you have to choose a direction, and somehow, the right path reveals itself just in time. Hecate, this cycle doesn't remove choice, it enhances your ability to choose correctly.

There's also a sense of protection here. Things that are not meant for you may quietly fall away, while what is meant for you moves closer. It's subtle, but powerful. You're being redirected, not blocked.

On a deeper level, this cycle is teaching you to trust yourself. Your intuition is not random, it's a tool. And right now, it's leading you directly toward your fortune.

20. Ceto (Kay-Toe)

Date of birth: December 29 - January 10

(13.20 degrees Sagittarius - 26.40 Sagittarius)

Ceto

Ceto this version of karmic energy is deep, emotional, and transformative in the best possible way. This is not surface-level luck, this is healing that turns into strength and strength that turns into opportunity.

You may find yourself finally understanding something that once confused or overwhelmed you. Emotional patterns, relationship dynamics, internal fear are coming into focus, and instead of feeling heavy, it feels empowering. Like you're finally seeing the blueprint behind your own life.

This clarity allows you to make better decisions, create stronger boundaries and make healthier connections. You're no longer reacting from old wounds, you're responding from awareness. And that shift, that's where your blessings come from.

There can also be positive developments around home, family, or emotional security. Situations stabilize, conversations bring resolution and you feel more grounded, more supported, and more at peace with where you are and where you're going.

Materially, this gifts may not be loud, but they will be meaningful. The kind of gifts that bring comfort, stability, and a sense of "I'm okay now." And honestly, that kind of security is priceless.

Ceto, this cycle is teaching you that your sensitivity is not a weakness, it's a compass and right now, it's pointing you directly toward what's meant for you.

21. Natura (Na-Too-Ra)

Date of birth: January 11 - January 23

(26.40 degrees Sagittarius - 10.00 degrees Capricorn)

Natura

Natura's prosperity is organic, steady, and impossible to rush. This cycle gives growth that feels like watching a garden come to life... you don't see it changing every second, but suddenly everything is blooming and you're like, "wait... when did that happen?"

This is a beautiful time for long-term investments, projects, or efforts you've been nurturing are beginning to show results. Not overnight success, but real, grounded progress that you can rely on. Natura, this cycle will not stand for shortcuts, it deals in sustainability.

Financially, this can bring stability and gradual increase. You may feel more secure, more rooted, and more confident in your ability to provide for yourself. There's less panic, less urgency, and more trust in the process, and ironically, that calm mindset is what allows things to grow even more.

There's also a strong connection to your environment. Where you live, how you live, and what you surround yourself with becomes important. Small improvements in your space or routine can have a surprisingly big impact on your overall prosperity.

At its core, Natura, this is reminding you that abundance is a relationship. The more you nurture it, the more it grows. And right now? You're in a season of growth that's not just promising... it's lasting.

22. Apollo (A-Paul-O)

Date of birth: January 24 - February 5

(10.00 degrees Capricorn - 23.20 Capricorn)

Apollo

Apollo, your obstacles are mental, strategic, and just intellectual enough to make you feel like you should have this figured out already. Spoiler alert: that's part of the challenge. This is not about being perfect, it's about refining how you think, communicate, and make decisions.

You may encounter delays, miscommunications, or situations where details matter more than usual. Small mistakes could have bigger ripple effects, not to punish you, but to sharpen your awareness. Apollo, this cycle is basically handing you a magnifying glass and saying, "look closer."

There can also be a tendency to overanalyze. Planning, re-planning, thinking, rethinking... until you're stuck in a loop of "almost ready" but not actually moving. The obstacle here is learning when enough is enough. Progress beats perfection every time.

In work or daily life, this is a period where organization, clarity, and communication become essential. If something is unclear, ask. If something needs structure, create it. Apollo, this cycle rewards precision, but it doesn't expect you to be flawless, just intentional.

By the end of this cycle, your mind will be sharper, your decisions clearer, and your ability to navigate complexity stronger than before. Apollo, this cycle doesn't trip you up for fun... it trains you to think like someone who knows exactly what they're doing.

23. Muses (Mu-sus)

Date of birth: February 6 - February 19

(23.20 degrees Capricorn - 6.40 degrees Aquarius)

Muses

Muses, Your gifts arrive wrapped in inspiration, creativity, and a little bit of magic that you can't fully explain but definitely appreciate.

This is a time where ideas flow more easily. Creativity feels natural instead of forced. Whether you're writing, creating, speaking, or simply expressing yourself, there's an ease here that attracts attention and opportunity. People are drawn to what you create because it feels authentic.

Gains can come through artistic or expressive outlets, but also through moments where you simply follow what feels good. Muses, this cycle doesn't reward rigid plans, it rewards inspiration in motion. That random idea you almost ignored? That could be the one.

There's also a boost in confidence around sharing your voice. You're less concerned with perfection and more focused on expression and ironically, that's what makes your work resonate even more. People don't connect to perfect, they connect to real.

On a deeper level, you're being reminded that your creativity is not just a hobby, it's a resource. A powerful one. And when you allow it to flow freely, it opens doors you didn't even know existed.

By the end of this cycle, you won't just feel more inspired... you'll see how that inspiration translates into actual, tangible gains.

24. Aegeon (A-Gee-On)

Date of birth: February 20 - March 4

(6.40 degrees Aquarius - 20.00 Aquarius)

Aegeon

Aegeon, this cycle may feel like it is wreaking havoc but in a deep, quiet way. No fireworks, no sudden crashes—just a slow, powerful current pulling away what can't survive in your emotional depths. If Typhon is a storm and Favonius is wind, Aegeon is the tide that decides what stays on shore.

This is a time of releasing attachments that have been lingering too long. Emotional ties, habits, or even environments that once felt safe may now feel heavy or outdated. The process isn't rushed, but it is inevitable. You're outgrowing things, and Aegeon is making sure you don't drag them into your next chapter.

There can be moments of introspection where you pull back, reassess, and question what truly matters. This isn't isolation for no reason—it's recalibration. You're reconnecting with your inner compass so your outer life can follow something real.

Financial or practical changes may come through letting go rather than gaining. Ending a commitment, releasing a burden, or stepping away from something that was quietly draining your resources can actually improve your overall stability.

At its core, Aegeon teaches that not everything needs to be saved. Some things need to be released so your energy can return to you and when it does, you'll have more strength, clarity, and space than you've had in a long time.

25. Chimera (Kee-Mare-A)

Date of birth: March 5 - March 17

(20.00 degrees Aquarius - 3.20 degrees Pisces)

Chimera

Chimera, your success is unconventional, unexpected, and just a little bit “how did that even happen?” This is the energy of turning something unusual, creative, or even chaotic into something brilliant.

You may find that your greatest advantage right now is your uniqueness. The thing you thought was “too different,” “too weird,” or “not traditional enough” becomes the exact reason you stand out. Chimera, you don’t succeed by fitting in, you succeed by redefining the rules entirely.

There can be breakthroughs in creative work, problem-solving, or situations where others feel stuck. You’re able to combine ideas, perspectives, or approaches in ways that others wouldn’t even think to try, and that innovation, that’s where your success lives.

At times, things may feel a little unpredictable. Plans shift, outcomes surprise you, and the path isn’t always linear. But every twist seems to work in your favor, even if you don’t see it immediately. Trust the process, even when it looks unconventional.

By the end of this cycle, you’ll see that success didn’t come from doing things the right way, it came from doing them your way, and that’s what makes it powerful.

26. Phorcus (Por-Cus)

Date of birth: March 18 - March 31

(3.20 degrees Pisces - 16.40 Pisces)

Phorcus

Phorcus, this cycle doesn't play on the surface, This is deep, karmic, "we're going to the root of this whether you like it or not" energy. It may seem a bit destructive, but just know it is tied to identity, protection, and the masks you've worn to navigate the world.

Situations may arise that force you to confront what's real versus what's been a defense mechanism. Patterns around trust, vulnerability, or how you present yourself can come to the forefront, and it can feel intense.

There may be endings connected to environments, relationships, or roles that were built around a version of you that no longer exists. Phorcus, this cycle removes the outer layer so the inner truth can finally breathe.

This can also bring a powerful release of emotional weight. Things you've been carrying, consciously or not, begin to dissolve. It may not be instant, but it is profound. You're shedding something heavy, something old, something that no longer belongs to who you're becoming.

And here's the part people don't talk about enough: this kind of destruction is where your greatest strength is born. Because once the false layers are gone, what remains is unshakable.

By the end of this cycle, you won't recognize the version of yourself that walked into it. And that's exactly the point.

27. Hermaia (Her-Maya)

Date of birth: April 1 - April 13

(16.40 degrees Pisces - 30 degrees Pisces)

Hermaia

Hermaia, this is where enjoyment gets quick, witty, and just a little bit chaotic in the best way. This is the energy of laughter, movement, conversation, and those moments where you're thinking, "this is way more fun than I expected."

You may find yourself busier socially, mentally, or physically. More conversations, more ideas, more interactions, and instead of feeling overwhelming, it feels... energizing. Like your mind and environment are finally keeping up with each other.

Enjoyment here comes through communication. Talking, sharing, joking, connecting. You might find that humor flows easily, ideas bounce effortlessly, and even everyday interactions feel more lively than usual.

There's also a playful unpredictability. Plans may change, things may shift, but instead of being frustrating, it adds to the fun. You're more adaptable, more open, and more willing to go with the flow.

Financially or practically, there can be small wins, quick opportunities, or clever solutions that make life easier. Nothing heavy, just little moments of "that worked out nicely."

At its core, Hermaia, this cycle is reminding you that enjoyment doesn't have to be planned or perfected. Sometimes it's found in movement, in conversation, and in letting life surprise you a little.
